If you're wondering it's pronounced neh-neht. I've volunteered many years as an archivist to preserve digital rarities. In my spare time I write about psychology, technology, and the perils of neo-colonialism. While I'm best known for my activism and investigative work, I also advocate for FOSS and sustainable computing against hyperconsumption.

I have an entire section dedicated to gore, guts, and true crime under horrorshow. I must warn you that the content is intended to be 18+ only, but I'm not a failing parent. I make an active effort towards making this site as accessible as possible, feedback is always appreciated.

2022-09-23 3 new posts and a redesign on the spooky section

2022-09-19 validated pages, accasibility checks

2022-09-13 I re-worked the layout a bit (again). I know, I know. Anyway if you haven't checked the latest post then you should.

2022-09-09 made updates. 99% of the html
